HOUSE PASSES CASH BONUS

Votes 209 to 176 on Bill, Senate Leaders Forecast Defeat.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON June 15—Immediate cash payment of the $2 400 000 000 soldiers certificates—demanded by 20 000 former service men bivouacked in the capital—was approved today by the house

The measure now goes to the senate where leaders claimed enough votes for rejection President Hoover has promised a veto if the legislation reaches the White House

The Patman plan for cashing the $2 400 000 000 bonus in new money was amended to provide an equal issue of government bonds to be used for retiring this currency if the dollar becomes too cheap

The vote for the measure was 209 to 176

Senator Thomas Democrat of Oklahoma planned to ask for an immediate vote in the senate when the bill reached there from the house

This would require unanimous consent to dispense with the usual procedure of referring the bill to a committee but leaders indicated they would accept the suggestion

A single objection however would require the bill to be sent to the senate finance committee for study

A request to dispense with the remaining two hours general debate was made by Representative Ragon Democrat of Arkansas an advocate of the bill after an agreement between proponents and opponents

As has been the case every day this week the galleries were filled with a host of veterans from the bonus encampment Meanwhile the encamped veterans had suffered serious misfortune The temporary hospital set up was closed The officers said they had been totally swamped in trying to care for the sick and had received no cooperation from federal and district health authorities

WANTS HIS MONEY

Stadium Manager So Notifies G O P Heads They're Not Worried.

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO June 15 — Sidney Strotz general manager of the Chicago stadium told the Republicans today to dig up $8 500 they owe him "or you won't have a hall tomorrow morning"

Strotz said the amount is the balance due for construction work

"I've got to have my money" he said "It must be paid tonight or the Republicans won't have any hall tomorrow morning"

Convention officials seemed unconcerned and there apparently was little fear that the $8,500 would not be forthcoming on time.

No one seemed to believe that the Republican national convention would be like an indigent Uncle Tom show when the sheriff seizes the props."

COXEY WOULD FORCE SUPPORT OF OHIOANS

Massillon Mayor May Ask Federal Court To Aid Fight for Nomination.

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO June 15—Prospects loomed today that the federal court will be asked to intervene if the Ohio state delegation to the Republican national convention fails to back Mayor Jacob S Coxey of Massillon O for the presidential nomination

Coxey leader of famous Coxey's army of unemployed men to Washington in 1894 on arrival here yesterday declared his primary purpose in attending the convention was to force the Ohio delegates to support him

He carried a certified copy of the results of the Ohio primary issued by Secretary of State Clarence J Brown and showing Coxey led the presidential preference field with 75 844 votes

"I mean to take the matter up with the credentials committee of the convention at once" the general said "If I am refused the Ohio delegates support I shall go before a federal judge and mandamus them to cast their vote for me"

COLUMBUS O June 15—Although Mayor Jacob S Coxey of Massillon received the largest number of votes in Ohio's presidential preference primary Ohio laws do not require the state's presidential delegation to support him

The Ohio preferential primary is an empty honor and was not even entered by President Hoover to whom the entire Buckeye Republican delegation is pledged President Hoover was an easy winner in the primary contest for delegates

LA FOLLETTE GROUP REBUKED BY PARTY

CHICAGO June 15—A resounding rebuke to nine LaFollette members of the Wisconsin delegation and settlement of four vigorously debated southern contests ended the work early today of the [illegible] committee of the Republican national committee.

The charge against the LaFollette faction was that the nine committed a form of party treason by keeping their seats on the convention floor at the mention of President Hoover's name and also during a parade of flags.

GASTON MEANS GETS 15-YEAR SENTENCE

Former U. S. Investigator Flayed in Kidnaping Swindle; Plans Appeal.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON June 15—Gaston B Means today was sentenced to 15 years imprisonment for swindling Mrs Evalyn Walsh McLean of $104 000 in an alleged plan to return the kidnaped Lindbergh baby

Justice James M Proctor in the District of Columbia supreme court sentenced the former justice department investigator to 10 years on the larceny of $100 000 ransom money and five years for larceny of the $4 000 expense money The latter sentence is to begin after the 10 year sentence has been fulfilled

T Morris Wampler one of Means defense counsel noted an appeal

Justice Proctor in addressing Means said the verdict reveals that the defendant capitalized not only on the sweetest and tenderest emotions of the human heart but also of the basest in his clever and adroit plan

"The Lindbergh case brought out all the best in the hearts of men but also gave the opportunity to some to display the weakness and wickedness of human nature"

ENGLAND TO PROBE LINDY CASE SUICIDE

By The Associated Press

ENGLEWOOD N J June 15—Violet Sharpe English servant girl in the home of Mrs Dwight W Morrow was buried today while the British government started an investigation to find out what was behind the terror that drove her to suicide last Friday as police waited to question her about the Lindbergh baby kidnaping

Gerald Shepherd acting British consul general attended the funeral and then went to the Morrow estate for a conference with Arthur Springer who was the late Senator Morrow's secretary and who is representing Mrs Morrow in this matter

SNELL NAMES G.O.P. AS HOPE OF NATION

Solidarity of Party Means Salvation of U. S., Chairman Says; Raps Democrats.

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO June 15—Representative Bertrand H Snell permanent chairman of the Republican national convention told its delegates today that the solidarity of their party in "this crisis means the salvation of the United States"

The New Yorker alternated denunciation of the Democrats and praise of President Hoover, but like Senator L J Dickinson of Iowa, in the keynote speech yesterday, he did not mention prohibition.

"By being tried in the actual responsibility of conducting the government," Snell said, "The Republican party has become capable of progress."

He asserted that outside the Republican party is "confusion and chaos," adding "the only sound and united public sentiment of the United States is represented in this convention."

In support of [illegible]

Democratic party is "fatally weak" because it is "utterly lacking in team work," Snell referred to the house of representatives of which he is minority leader.

Placed in control there, he said, the opposition did well enough so long as it followed the President but when they "set out to carry forward their own program they exhibited colossal incapacity, hopeless division and [illegible] with the result that they [illegible] complete collapse of their [illegible] machinery."

CONVENTION IN WILD OVATION FOR PRESIDENT

California Governor Interrupts Speech of Chairman Snell To Lead Rousing Twenty-Minute Demonstration for Chief Executive.

HOOVER FORCES SEEN IN FULL CONTROL

Party Heads Grasp Throttle with Firmer Hand To Iron Out Differences Over Prohibition and Vice President Nomination.

BY BYRON PRICE
Associated Press Staff Writer

CHICAGO STADIUM, June 15 — Taking up the quick step of a real convention show at last the Republicans today marched and shouted in a 20 minute demonstration for Hoover adopted without a murmur the administration-backed report of a credentials committee and got ahead with its affairs with a dispatch which showed the President and his friends firmly at the helm of party affairs

A tribute to the Hoover record in the course of a rip-roaring Republican speech by Congressman Snell, the permanent chairman set off the 20 minutes of noise and disorder, as the delegates from every state circled the arena cheering and the great pipe organ pealed out the notes of "California Here I Come"

The whirling pushing throng was led by Gov Rolph of Mr Hoover's own state holding high the California flag One after another Illinois last of all the delegations put their state standards into the yelling parade Wisconsin Hoover men jubilant to be in the majority in their state after years of defeat handed their standard to the speakers platform and national chairman Fess waved it high for all to see

It was the first touch of life since the big show opened yesterday The delegates seemed to enjoy it immensely and settled back in their seats afterward smiling and interested as Snell went on with the speech which made up most of the proceedings at the morning session

Hoover in Control

Hoover men grasped the throttle of the convention with a firmer hand today as the second session met under the myriad flags of the vast stadium

Stepping up under the spur of Charles G Dawes announcement that he could not accept second place on the ticket the administration forces renewed their canvass to solidify sentiment for a straight Hoover-Curtis ticket again Meantime across town from the stadium, a platform committee dominated by men handpicked by Washington put some polishing touches on a prohibition submission plank they hope will be found acceptable at last even though it has no prospect of convention approval without a fight The business immediately in hand at the convention session itself was ratification of a credentials committee report almost entirely satisfactory to the friends of the President It turned out of the convention one of the familiar figures of many a former Republican get-together "Tieless" Joe Tolbert of South Carolina.

The [illegible] got their first gallery applause of today's session when the organist, stepping on his loudest pedal, filled the stadium with the rollicking notes of "The Sidewalks of New York." A lot of laughter and a little handclapping greeted the 1928 campaign theme song of Al Smith.

Immediately afterward the temporary chairman, Senator Dickinson of Iowa, made his first try for order. He banged and pleaded. Slowly the [illegible] aisles began to clear and a little later, a few minutes before noon and nearly a whole hour late, the convention was in a state of order

At everybody stood with bowed head, the prayer was read by Monsignor Thomas P. Hogan, of Chicago [illegible]

WET LEADERS OPPOSE PLANK

Plan To Carry Fight for Repeal to Platform Committee Today

BY FRANCIS M STEPHENSON
Associated Press Writer

CHICAGO June 15—Prohibition repeal advocates declared opposition to the administration resubmission compromise today as the Republican platform committee took up the proposal approved early in the morning by a subcommittee

The administration plank sent along by the subcommittee provided for resubmission to the people of a substitute for the Eighteenth amendment

It won a viva voce vote Anthony [illegible] of [illegible] New Jersey's representative on the subcommittee voted against the proposal and joined with Senator Bingham of Connecticut to fight it in the whole committee

Hope To Avoid Battle

However administration forces held command as the prohibition controversy neared the convention floor

Determined to avoid a long drawn battle on the floor friends of the submission plank arranged for early state conferences on it to acquaint the delegates of its provisions

Meanwhile the Pennsylvania delegation voted for a state repeal declaration but agreed to keep hands off the submission compromise in the national convention.

James M Hazlett of Philadelphia offered the resolution to instruct the state committee for repeal and immediate modification of the Volstead act It carried 50 to 17

Postmaster General Brown and Walter Newton, secretary to President Hoover, both appeared in the Pennsylvania conference room.

Meanwhile the organized prohibition leaders reiterated their determination to withhold final comment on the prohibition plank until both national conventions have concluded.

As the resubmission plank got through the resolutions subcommittee party leaders immediately launched an unprecedented drive for convention approval

Even before the whole committee meet at 11 a. m. to pass upon the prohibition declaration, heads of some of the larger state delegations were requested to call conferences to speed consideration of the proposition by the delegates.

"Not Repeal"

"It is not repeal," said one of the prohibition leaders as the compromise plan emerged from an all night session of the sub-committee.

Pending consideration by the whole committee the draft of the resubmission plank was carefully held secret.

WHEREAS Ordinances Nos 3098 passed May 26th 1930 3109 passed July 7th 1930 and 3152 passed May 26th 1931 provided for the issuance and sale of notes of the City of Marion Ohio in anticipation of the levy and collection of special assessments and issuance of bonds to pay the Property Owners' part of the cost of construction of the above described improvements and

WHEREAS such notes were duly issued and sold and are now payable and for such reason it is necessary that said bonds should be now issued now therefore

Be it ordained by the Council of the City of Marion and State of Ohio

Section 1—That in accordance with Ordinances Nos 3098 3109 and 3152 it is deemed necessary and it is hereby determined to issue and sell and there shall be issued and sold bonds of said City of Marion Ohio in the principal sum of $21,[illegible] in anticipation of the levy and collection of special assessments, for the purpose of raising money to retire the notes which were issued in anticipation of the levy and collection of special assessments and of the issuance of these bonds for the purpose of paying the Property Owners' part of the cost of improving Commercial Street from Silver Street to the North terminus thereof by grading setting curbs and crossings constructing the necessary drains and retaining walls gutters and catch basins and paving the present roadway with any substantial paving material the improvement of North Prospect Street from Mark Street to the Erie Railroad and of Silver Street from the Hocking Valley Railroad to the west terminus of said street by grading setting curbs and crossings constructing the necessary drains and retaining walls gutters and catch basins and resurfacing the roadways thereof with any substantial paving material said issue shall consist of twenty two bonds of the denomination of $1,000.00 each except the first one which shall be of the denomination of $[illegible] and shall be numbered consecutively from one to twenty two both inclusive shall be dated July 15th, 1932 shall be due and payable $[illegible] September 1st 1933 $1,000.00 March 1st and September 1st in each of the years 1934 to 1941 both inclusive and $2,000.00 March 1st and September 1st in the year 1942 and shall bear interest at the rate of 6% per annum payable semi-annually on the first day of March and September of each year until the principal sum is paid said interest being evidenced by coupons attached to said bonds and bearing the facsimile signature of the City Auditor provided however that if said bonds are sold bearing a different rate of interest than hereinbefore specified such bonds shall bear such rate of interest as may be provided for in the Resolution of Council approving the award thereof. The principal and interest of all of said bonds shall be payable at the office of the City Treasurer in said City of Marion Ohio.

Section 2—Said bonds shall be designated as Street Improvement Bonds shall be prepared by the City Solicitor be signed by the Mayor and City Auditor sealed with the City Seal and recorded in the office of the Sinking Fund Trustees shall express upon their face the purpose for which they are issued and the fact they are issued pursuant to law and this Ordinance shall have the names of the Streets or portions thereof hereinbefore designated printed thereon shall be serial bonds numbered and payable as above provided in their consecutive serial order and shall be issued and sold under the direction of the Finance Committee of Council.

Section 3—Said bonds shall be first offered at par and accrued interest to the Trustees of the Sinking Fund in their official capacity, and if said Trustees refuse to take any or all of said bonds then said bonds not so taken shall be advertised for public sale and sold in the manner provided by law but not for less than their par value and accrued interest the bond sale advertisement shall state that any one desiring to do so may present a bid or bids for such bonds based upon their bearing a different rate of interest than hereinbefore fixed provided however that where a fractional interest rate is bid such fraction shall be one quarter of one per cent or multiple thereof.

Section 4—That upon the sale of said bonds any premium and accrued interest realized therefrom and the amount of said bonds issued for interest shall be paid to the Sinking Fund Trustees to be applied in the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds in the manner provided by law. The par value realized from the sale of said bonds shall be placed in the City Treasury to the credit of the respective improvements as follows: Commercial Street, $[illegible], North Prospect Street, $[illegible], and Silver Street, $[illegible], and shall be disbursed on proper vouchers in payment of the notes and interest thereon above described, for which said purpose said money is hereby appropriated.

Section 5—In the event any of the owners of property specially assessed to pay the property Owners' part of the cost of said improvements shall pay their assessments in cash within thirty days of the date of the final passage of the ordinance levying such assessments and such payments be made at such time as the same may be utilized for the retirement of said notes or a portion thereof, then such cash payments shall be utilized and the aggregate amount of bonds to be issued shall be reduced by deducting the amount so paid and utilized from the total amount of the bonds to be issued and the bonds herein provided for first maturing shall be correspondingly reduced by the omission of as many thereof as shall equal said above mentioned cash payments or by changing the denomination of one of said bonds or both as the case may be and the amount to be credited to the foregoing funds from the sale of said bonds shall be likewise reduced by the amount of such cash payments.

Section 6—All installments of said assessments and all portions thereof together with the interest thereon shall be applied to the payments of said bonds and interest as the same shall become due and to no other purpose whatsoever.

Section 7—That the faith credit and revenue of said City of Marion Ohio are hereby pledged for the prompt payment of both principal and interest of the bonds heretofore described in accordance with the laws and constitution of the State of Ohio.

Section 8—That for the purpose of providing the necessary funds to pay the interest on the foregoing issue of bonds when and as the same falls due and also to create and maintain a fund sufficient to discharge the said bonds at maturity there shall be and is hereby levied on all taxable property of said City of Marion, Ohio in addition to all other taxes, a direct tax annually during the period for which said bonds are to run an amount sufficient to provide for the discharge of the principal of said serial bonds at maturity which tax shall not be less than the interest and sinking fund tax required by Section 11 of Article XII of the Constitution provided however that in each year that the assessments anticipated by said bonds are payable and applicable to the payment of such interest and principal and are appropriated for such purposes the amount of such tax shall be reduced by the amount of the assessments so appropriated.

That said tax shall be and is hereby ordered computed certified levied and extended upon the tax duplicate and collected by the same officers in the same manner and at the same time that the taxes for general purposes for each of said years are certified extended and collected. Said tax shall be placed before and in preference to all other items and for the full amount thereof. All funds derived from said tax levy hereby required shall be placed in a separate and distinct fund which together with all interest collected on the same shall be and is hereby irrevocably pledged for the payment of the interest and principal of said bonds when and as the same fall due.

Section 9—The City Auditor is hereby directed to forward a certified copy of this Ordinance to the County Auditor of Marion County Ohio.

Section 10—This Ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.

J., and others. Peoples Gas and Detroit Edison rose about 4 and 5, and Auburn pushed up several points. Kansas City Southern preferred gained 4.

The midweek business and trade statistics were if anything somewhat more encouraging than last week. Electric power production in the week ended June 11, was off 11½ per cent from last year, as against a shrinkage of more than 12 throughout April and May. "Iron Age" said steel production was off a point to 10 per cent capacity, but spoke of a possible summer upturn, should political and financial uncertainties be lifted. The weekly petroleum statistics showed a slight gain in crude output, but further shrinkage in gasoline in storage. International banking quarters were not much concerned over the Lausanne conference, feeling that permanent solution of the debt problem may be postponed to autumn.

Among individual shares, Auburn continued to gyrate rather wildly, despite Prof. Ripley's characterization of the market performance of that issue as "outrageous," before the senate committee yesterday. Macy advanced sharply on ordering of the regular dividend, and Kansas City southern preferred was helped by halving of the common dividend.

Pick Contest Judge.

John Bush was selected by members of the Squarehead club at their meeting last night to serve as judge in the annual airplane contest to be staged by the Y. M. C. A. and in which the trophy is furnished by the club. The definite date for the contest which had been postponed from May 11, has not been fixed, members of the club said. Plans were also discussed for a week-end party to be held in the near future.

GRAIN PRICES ON UPGRADE

Heavy Purchases by Eastern Speculator Starts Wheat on Upward Trend.

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, June 15—Aggressive buying credited to a noted eastern speculator did much today to bring about higher prices for wheat.

Around 2,000,000 bushels divided into 500,000 bushel lots were said to have been purchased by him in a few minutes. Late upturns in Liverpool wheat quotations were a contributing bullish influence.

Wheat closed unsettled, 1½@1⅝ above yesterday's finish, corn ⅝@1⅛ up, oats ⅝@⅞ advanced, and provisions unchanged to 5 cents higher.

Pit offerings were relatively scarce, and quick jumps carried the market up almost 2 cents from early bottom figures that equalled the season's low. Word that 45,000 bushels of corn had been taken here for export helped to lift wheat.

Bulls in wheat contended that the market had been oversold, and that rallies were overdue on technical grounds alone. Meanwhile, advices were current that although the condition of domestic spring wheat at present was good, uneasiness prevailed regarding likelihood of hot weather in July causing a dust scare or damage from blight. Growth was reported soft, and it was asserted that such a stand deteriorated fast if weather conditions were not quite favorable.

Corn and oats responded to wheat price gains and to export buying of corn. Provisions were firmer with hog values and with cereals.

QUARTET WILL SING AT TENT SERVICES

Evangelist Ferguson Preaches on "The Devil."

"The Devil" was the subject of last night's sermon by Dwight H. Ferguson, lay evangelist, at his tent meeting in the rear of 187 West Center street. The Women's Silvertone quartet of Marion will sing tonight.

In part, Mr. Ferguson spoke as follows:

"The arch enemy of man's eternal soul is operating in 1932 and is using the same avenues of approach as when he caused the fall in the Garden of Eden. Temptation is the much-frequented door through which Satan endeavors to gain entrance to man's soul.

"The devil is a deceiver of mankind. He is the father of lies. He is a murderer and he is a usurper. His only accomplishment was to bring into existence the embodiment of sin. He usurped the third of God's angelic host, he has usurped the kingdom of man's soul, but in one man, Jesus Christ, we are completely redeemed from Satan's terrible power and given power to live free from sin."

113 ENTER SCHOOL OPENED BY CHURCH

Children enrolled in the church school which opened Monday at Trinity Baptist church numbered 113 today the report showed. Of this number 63 are girls and 50 boys.

Forty-two girls and 29 boys are enrolled in the intermediate and junior departments and 21 boys and the same number of girls are registered for work in the primary and kindergarten department. Sessions are held each morning from 9 to 11:30 a. m. under the direction of Miss Grace Wingett and Miss Rhea King. Rev. L. A. Wood, pastor of Trinity Baptist church, is general superintendent of the school.

More than one-third of the toys exported by the United States last year went to Canada and almost as many to Great Britain.

REPEAL OF DRY LAW URGED BY FIRESTONE

Wet G. O. P. Plank Suggested; Don't Straddle Question, Akron Man Advises.

By The Associated Press

CONVENTION HALL, CHICAGO, June 15—Gilbert Bettman, Ohio's Republican senatorial nominee who is attending the Republican convention, disclosed to newspapermen today that Harvey Firestone had wired an advocacy of prohibition repeal for presentation to the Republican platform committee.

Firestone's telegram urging the resolutions committee not be permitted "to straddle the wet and dry plank" was sent to J. R. Nutt, treasurer of the Republican national committee.

Nutt turned the telegram over to Bettman who is attorney general for Ohio. Bettman said he would present it to the resolutions committee this afternoon when he will appeal for a wet plank.

EMPLOYES GUESTS AT DINNER DANCE

Employes of the Marion division of the Ohio Associated Telephone Co. were entertained at a dinner and dance in Hotel Harding last night. The meeting was in charge of B. T. Van Voorhis, vice president and general manager of the company.

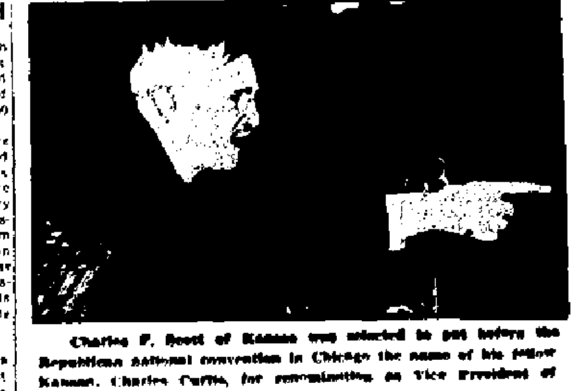
One hundred and fifteen employes of the company were present. Mr. Van Voorhis outlined plans for offering the company's subscribers an opportunity to invest in the company's preferred stock during a 12-day period beginning June 20. The shares will be sold by employes.

TWO ARE FINED IN MUNICIPAL COURT

Dave Williams, 34, of West Center street and Carl Winslow of North State street were each fined $10 and costs by Municipal Judge W. R. Martin this morning when they pleaded guilty to charges of being drunk and disorderly.

Both resisted patrolmen who made the arrests, police said. Winslow's injuries were treated by a physician at the city prison.

TO PLACE CURTIS IN RACE



Charles F. Scott of Kansas was selected to put before the Republican national convention in Chicago the name of his fellow Kansan, Charles Curtis, for renomination as Vice President of the United States.

DEMOCRATS WORK ON RESUBMISSION PLANK

Leaders Strive To Assure Harmony by Declaring for State Referendums.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, June 15—Mindful of Republican prohibition worries in Chicago, a group of Democratic leaders here is shaping a repeal plank they confidentially hope will win unqualified approval in the Windy city two weeks hence.

It still is rough-hewn. But in keeping with the desire to keep the entire 1932 platform under 1,000 words, this plank uses just a few more than 50 to dispose of the liquor issue.

It declares for "immediate submission to state conventions," of a repeal amendment. This amendment would be so drafted as to assure "state control of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors."

This principle—repeal of the eighteenth amendment by an amendment restoring state control—is the heart of the plank. About it are hung declarations for the promotion of temperance and the suppression of liquor traffic in states choosing to remain dry.

The saloon is frowned upon in this one-sentence, one-paragraph plank. But it leaves no doubt that return or banishment of the saloon will be up to the states.

No direct mention is made of beer, or modification of the Volstead act.

DENTIST WILL FACE CHARGE OF MURDER

Action Planned Following Death of Wife After Shooting in Home.

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, O., June 15—The filing of a murder charge against Dr. John O. Steer, Cleveland dentist, was planned today by the county prosecutor's office, following the death last night of the doctor's wife.

Mrs. Steer was found Monday morning in their home with a bullet wound in her head. Her husband, suffering a scalp wound, told police first they had been attacked by a burglar, but later changed his story.

The doctor's second version of the shooting was that his wife had started beating him with a revolver while he was sleeping, after an argument over their "systems" of playing cards, and that he took the gun away from her and shot her accidentally.

Two children of the couple, John Jr., 11, and Lucille, 8, were asleep at the time of the shooting.

Economist Sees Progress in Financial Conditions

Unmistakable Improvement in Last Month Reported by Col Ayres Credits Policy of Federal Reserve with Valuable Aid to Banks of Country

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND O., June 15—Much progress has been made during the last month in the long process of creating a good financial foundation on which business improvement can be based, says Col Leonard P Ayres of the Cleveland Trust company in his monthly review of business issued today.

Most of the time during the past year and a half, Colonel Ayres said, bank deposits have been shrinking and their loans and investments have been falling. Now these movements have been reversed and bank deposits are increasing and their loans and investments are [illegible]. It is clear that the liquidation of banks' security holdings has been halted and loans to business are being expanded.

Traces Trend to Source

The improvement, Colonel Ayres believes, is pretty clearly to be attributed to the open market policy of the Federal Reserve system which has increased the amount of reserve credit and enabled banks to pay down their borrowings. With this easing off of credit strain there has come the announcement of the formation in New York of an investment consortium of banks organized to support the bond market by purchasing securities on a large scale. This is a [illegible] by the [illegible] market operations of the [illegible] system and already its helpful effects have become clearly apparent.

[illegible] Apprehension [illegible] has finally been allayed [illegible] by the [illegible] in passing the tax bill and the [illegible] bill and [illegible] the budget. [illegible] there have been heavy gold exports which were disquieting. However the [illegible] recently [illegible] has [illegible] most all gold deposits and now we are in the fortunate position of having shipped home nearly all the French gold holdings that can be withdrawn and a large part of all other foreign holdings.

Present Situation Complicated

This month and this summer will clearly constitute a difficult period with complications existing abroad and with business [illegible] at a low ebb in this country. [illegible] real progress is being made in banking, in credit, in the bond market and in national finance. These accomplishments are not spectacular and they do not [illegible] work for the unemployed. They do however constitute the essential basis from which increased business activity must start.

Colonel Ayres notes that unbalanced budgets resulting from severe business depressions are not new in this country. "We had experience with them in the long depression of the '70s and again in that of the '90s," he pointed out. His comment [illegible] advance [illegible] vigorously in the opening days of June because of the organization by New York financial interests of the American Securities Investing corporation, a bond pool with large resources created to support the bond market and to inaugurate if possible a period of greater demand for such securities.

LEROY T ROBINSON DIES AT CLAIBORNE

RICHWOOD, June 15—LeRoy T Robinson, 77, died late yesterday at his home one mile south of Claiborne. He was born in Union county. The funeral will be held Friday at 10:30 a m in the Claiborne M P church. Burial will be made in the Claiborne cemetery.

The widow and two brothers, Cash of Richwood and Albert of Delaware, survive.

Faces Two Charges.

Charged with reckless driving with an automobile with improper license plates, Elmore Bush, 29, of 1?9 Boone ave., was arrested by the police last night at Spencer and East Church streets. Police said he had been speeding and driving in a reckless manner. He was later released and his car held for his appearance in court today.

The German State Railway is experimenting with self propelled freight cars each powerful enough to pull one trailer for local traffic.

OPERATION IS FATAL TO SCHOOL TEACHER

Shock Blamed as Miss Helen Pauline King Succumbs, Rites Friday.

Miss Helen Pauline King, 34, of 285 South Grand avenue, a teacher in the Marion public schools for the last 15 years, died today at 2:29 a. m. at City hospital.

Shock following an abdominal operation yesterday caused her death. The operation was performed successfully and until 5 p. m. yesterday her condition was not regarded as serious.

Miss King was a teacher of arithmetic and literature in the Vernon Heights Junior High school. She was graduated from Marion High school in 1916 and from Bowling Green State Normal school. She was a member of Trinity Baptist church and was active in Sunday school and church work.

Surviving with her parents, Mr and Mrs Charles H King, are her brother and three sisters, F V King of Lexington, Ky., Miss Rhea King at home, Mrs B G Milligan of Clover avenue and Mrs Troy O McClure of Cherry street.

Miss King was born March 9, 1898, in Mansfield to Charles H and Pauline Roethlisberger King, residents of Mansfield for years. The family moved to Marion when Miss King was a small child.

The funeral will be conducted Friday at 2 p. m. at the home and at 2:30 p. m. at Trinity Baptist church. Rev Lawrence A. Wood, pastor, will officiate. Burial will be made in Marion cemetery. Friends may view the body at the home.

COUPLE INJURED IN ACCIDENT NEAR HERE

Mrs Loraine Dunn in Hospital, Car Hits Ditch West of LaRue.

Mrs Loraine Dunn of Cleveland was in City hospital this morning and Joseph Snider of 4?4 North Greenwood street was suffering a broken collar bone and severe bruises following an accident last night west of LaRue when the car in which they were riding turned over.

Mrs Dunn's condition was not regarded as serious this morning at the hospital. No bones were broken. She was injured in the pelvic region but her physician said this morning that the injuries consisted mainly of bad bruises.

The accident occurred at 10:4? p m two and a half miles west of LaRue on the Mt Victory road. The car, a small coupe, turned over in the ditch and was demolished. Mrs Dunn and Snider were brought to City hospital in the Fraher and Davis ambulance from LaRue. Snider was dismissed from the hospital. Mrs Dunn has been visiting in Marion.

A Timely Suggestion to the
MOTORING PUBLIC

FOR the past six years, tires have been steadily dropping in price at periodic intervals.

No one familiar with general economic conditions and production costs could consistently recommend buying tires in advance of current needs as being desirable.

But now we have reached the point where crude rubber has declined from $1.20 a pound in 1925 —an artificially high price—to less than 3c a pound, which is far less than it costs to produce.

Cotton, too, has dropped from more than 20c a pound to around 5c a pound, which also is less than its cost of production.

These—rubber and cotton—are the two main materials entering into the construction of pneumatic tires.

A STEADY reduction in tire prices has been brought about almost entirely by the drastic decline in price of these two basic raw materials.

So in buying your tires now you get the benefit of these two items at less than cost of production, and the benefit also of price reductions made to give every possible inducement to stimulate buying for the purpose of keeping labor in the tire factories employed.

It must be evident, therefore, that tire prices have reached bottom and that you can wisely and profitably replace such tires as are worn to a point where they will soon become unsafe, and that also you can anticipate your future requirements to some extent and know you are making a good investment.

With the need of promoting employment wherever possible, and the imminence of a substantial revenue tax on tires, I believe that you will be benefiting yourselves and the country at large by making your tire purchases now.

OHIO MINERS STONED BY MASKED PICKETS

Rocks Hurled Through Bus Windows Near Cadiz Cause No Injuries

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS O June 15—Working miners in the eastern Ohio and Hocking Valley districts were stoned today as they went to work but official reports said no one was injured seriously and in both sections the groups continued to their operations

A bus carrying workers to the Adena mine near Cadiz was stopped by approximately 15 masked pickets and stones hurled through the windows

In the Hocking district Clinton Oxley of Albany was slightly cut by flying glass when his machine was stoned while he was going to No 26 mine at Chauncey

Officials said approximately 200 men were now working at the four mines in operation and that this number was being added to each day

"No one can believe mother is 40"

SAYS IRENE RICH'S DAUGHTER

FRANCES RICH, Irene Rich's charming 21 year old daughter. Already she has begun to follow her mother's method of guarding youthful loveliness. "I'm glad I know Mother's complexion secret," she says.

Recent photograph by A[illegible]rey

IRENE RICH—"Yes, I am 40. I don't mind confessing it a bit," says Irene Rich, radiantly youthful screen star with her famous smile. "If a woman really wants to, she can keep her youthful freshness right through the years. To guard complexion beauty I have used Lux Toilet Soap for a long time."

"I'm sure her complexion secret will keep me just as youthful when I'm her age!"

"IT certainly makes me happy to have a mother so universally admired. I am glad I know her complexion secret! I began quite a while ago myself to use Lux Toilet Soap regularly and I feel sure this nice white soap will keep my skin youthful looking, just as it has Mother's."

Wise young lady! Already she is guarding her youthful loveliness the safe gentle way so many beautiful Hollywood stars do! Not only her famous mother, but hundreds of others as well!

9 out of 10 screen stars use it

Of the 694 important Hollywood actresses, including all stars, 686 use this white, fragrant soap to keep their skin youthfully smooth and clear! It has been made the official soap in all the great film studios.

Surely you will want to give your complexion this same luxurious care!

Gambler's Throw

by Eustace L. Adams

[illegible]yrigh[t] Dial Press)

out turning a hair's breadth from its course, it passed out of her range of vision. In a few moments the snarl of its motor had dwindled into nothing.

"There's your pecan grove, old timer, if our luck holds out," shouted Emory triumphantly, as Jerry pointed down at the tiny pin of land below. "There's a house big enough to hold a regiment, and a hangar, too. Whoops, sisters, whoops!"

"I'll say that's some navigating," grinned Jerry, watching the island slide beneath the gleaming wing. "Now we'll have to keep going until they'll think we haven't seen them. Then I'll glide down and come back just over the top of the water so they can't see us. Watch for an island down there that would make a good landing place."

"Make it far enough away so they can't hear the motor," suggested Stevens, making a careful notation upon a large scale map. "I don't aim to have them waiting for us with a couple dozen machine guns."

His jaws resumed their placid rhythmic motion as he turned his attention to the machine gun, which he wiped as carefully as though it had received no care for weeks.

Ahead, astern and to the left, the sea was dotted by thousands of tiny islands, hard-edged spots of dark green against the sapphire blue of the water. To the right there was nothing but the endless expanse of the Gulf of Mexico, extending to the very edge of the horizon. Except for the house and hangar they had just passed there was no sign of a human in all the tremendous panorama beneath them. The silent islands were for the most part, simply clumps of dense mangroves which seemed to have grown out of the water with no earth to give them anchorage and sustenance. Far over to the eastward the islands became more numerous until there was more land than water. Here, as the islands blended one into another, began the Everglades, which extended straight across the southern Florida peninsula to the Atlantic ocean.

As Jerry cut the throttle and nosed the monoplane into a thin glide, flocks of herons, cranes and penguins flapped their wings and flew away from the strange air monster which had invaded their age-old privacy.

The pilot's spirits danced as he realized that they were at the end of their two-thousand mile chase. He had not the slightest doubt that in that low H-shaped house were to be found those who had disappeared so mysteriously from the midst of civilization as well as those who had spirited them away.

Just ahead and seven or eight miles from the inhabited island was a long, narrow key, bordered on the east by a mile-long stretch of sand which looked hard enough to sustain the monoplane's weight. Making one low flight across its entire length to assure himself that the beach held no obstacles which might trip the wheels, he dropped the plane light as a bird in a perfect three-point landing. Then, cutting the engine, he pushed himself out of his bucket seat and stretched his tired muscles.

"Someone'll have to pry me out of here," muttered the detective crossly. He climbed stiffly out of the cabin door.

"Pardon me if I seem to crow," offered Emory, "but you birds will have to admit that this was a [illegible] piece of navigating. You were both fit to be tied when that gaske[t] blew out and we had to [gl]ide down near Tallahassee, leaving the amphibian to sail away on [illegible] course to the southward."

"[illegible] you weren't doing any buck-and-wing dance yourself," retorted Jerry.

"Not at the moment," admitted his comrade. "But you'll grant that when I studied the map last night, used the ruler and projected the line of the amphibian's flight, I drew a circle around the Ten Thousand Islands on the extreme southwestern coast of Florida. I told you we'd find our little bride and groom [illegible] somewhere within my pencilled line."

"I have a plan," announced Jerry, his face suddenly serious. "Now that we're here we've got to do something about getting our feet on the island that house is on. We wouldn't get anywhere landing there with our plane. They've undoubtedly got machine guns and would wash us out before our propeller stopped whirling. We'll have to [use] strategy."

"Whe[n] [illegible] the Delphic oracle speaks," applauded Emory, his face solemn.

"One more peep out of you and I'll bury you alive in the sand," Jerry threatened heatedly. "Now here's what I have in mind. We'll pump up the collapsible rubber boat. Then I'll paddle it from one island to another until I get to the one nearest them. I'll deflate the boat and hide it in the scrub, go to the shore toward the house and yell for help. They'll probably rescue me out of curiosity. I'll tell them some kind of a cock-and-bull yarn and try to get the lay of the land—"

"And tomorrow," interjected Emory, "Steve and I'll fly over the island, drop sandburrs on your grave."

"Shut up! Tomorrow some time in the afternoon you get your machine gun ready and, as our witty friend has suggested, fly over the island. If things are right I'll find a table cloth or a sheet or a napkin out of a window, or on the lawn. If you see it, come on down, ready for trouble, while I start some kind of a rumpus in the house to keep everyone annoyed."

"It's a lousy idea," drawled Emory.

"Why?"

"Just this. I hate to throw money matters in your face, but I financed the expedition for the fun there would be in it. Now the first time that it looks as though there might be a little excitement you go and try to take the play away from me. Seems to me you might let me paddle over to the island and you and the old timer here do the manna from heaven act."

Stevens spat reflectively and scratched himself.

"Me," he ventured, "I don't think it's so good either. What we ought to do is to fly to the nearest town and get all the cops in sight and then come back in a boat and raid the place good and proper. I'm a peaceable feller and I smell trouble if we're going to mill around so impetuous-like. But, on the other hand, if we call in the bulls we'll have to split the rewards twenty-thirty ways."

It was evident that the detective was on the horns of a dilemma and the others were quick to see their advantage.

"Sure," agreed Jerry hastily. "To take a place like that island in a direct attack would give them time to prepare sand trenches and emplacements for their machine guns, if they haven't them already built. For a massed attack fifty men would be none too many. We'd hardly get a nickel of the reward."

"Tell you what I'll do, Emory," suggested Jerry brightening. "I'll match you to see which of us goes alone to the island."

"Listen, fellers," interrupted Stevens. "Seems to me you are forgetting there are three of us. We'll match. The odd man goes. Gambler's throw, winner take all."

They matched. Emory and Stevens turned up heads. Jerry triumphantly exhibited a tail, gleefully pocketed the coin and strode toward the fuselage where the rubber boat was stowed. While his comrade glowered, Stevens shook his head sadly. Years ago he remembered he had been all get-up-and-go like these boys. Well, time would temper them, unless they went and got themselves killed first.

The Stars Say—

For Thursday, June 16

WHILE the lunar transits bearing the rule on the events of this day are not of major importance yet there is a sign that much disagreeable and unhappy experience or adventure might be stirred up by a tendency to impetuous turbulent and passionate words and deeds. The inharmonious condition especially imperils happy relations with the opposite sex. Discretion here and strict application to affairs in hand may result in substantial benefits or the favors of elders.

Those whose birthday it is are at the threshold of a year in which much depends upon their own self-government, prudence and diligence. A disposition to quarrels, violence or rash and headstrong activities might prove disruptive of good prospects, of getting friendly aid from elders and other fruits of hard work and perseverance. Be calm and discreet in all affairs. A child born on this day should be industrious, faithful and practical, but may be prone to fly into rash, tempestuous and impulsive words and deeds.

"Heart of a Wife"

BY ADELE GARRISON

A Forged Letter Carrying the Signatures of Both Marion and Carolyn Presents the Kidnapers' Demand for $100,000 Ransom!

"WHY do you think Marion did not write the note?" my father asked quietly when I pronounced the note, ostensibly from her, a forgery.

I explained the misspelled words and the faulty English which I was sure Marion would not have used. My father listened carefully, his eyes fixed upon the lawn outside the window, his fingers holding the note lightly by the corner. Finally he looked over at me.

"Read it again to yourself," he directed, "so that you will have the feel of it, and then read it aloud to me."

What the Letter Said

I obeyed him and then with a mighty effort kept my voice steady as I read the letter aloud.

"Dear Momsy," it began, and that was the first misspelling I noticed, for Marion always calls her mother "Moms" or "Mumsie," never using either o or a y.

"First don't worry about us. The gentleman who took us away was awful nice to us and the lady who he took us to is kind and nice. We are together in a nice clean room and we've got a comfortable nice bed. It's so nice not to be separated. The food is good to or is it too? You know I always forget that Momsy sweetie.

"But this is a bad business Momsy. These men mean business even though they are nice to us. I don't know just what they will do if you don't do what they ask. One of them is a leader and the two others his helpers and the leader told me to write this. He says he don't want any handwriting of his to go out.

"He wants me to tell you to go up the Easton road to the first turn left, then the next turn left and the next after that. You'll be climbing all the time and you'll come out on a [illegible] of plateau all clear. He wants you to remember the place and then tomorrow have an airplane fly over it and circle three times and dip twice to let the men know it's the right one.

"He's to drop a note there [illegible] small [illegible] It [illegible] blow away [illegible] when he can bring on [illegible] thousand dollars in bills and drop it in the same spot. When he gets the money they will bring us home [illegible] take us to a place where we can come home to. We're not any where near that little the men say to tell you.

"Good-bye, Momsy, and please do anything to get them money. Caroline and I are awful scared.

"Your loving girl, Marion."

Below the signature was scrawled in a shaking hand:

"I'm scared too. Please do something quick. Caroline."

My father threw his shoulders back as I finished. It was as if [illegible]

[illegible] were [illegible]

"Read it again," [illegible] when [illegible] he said quietly.

South America Reds

The new regime in Chile teeters precariously on one foot trying to decide how far to the left it would be wise to jump. Carlos Davila former Chilean ambassador to this country has resigned as head of the new government. It is believed that his resignation was in protest against the extreme program of certain members of his cabinet.

Current unrest in Chile it should be realized is a symbol of the success of communism in South America, perhaps the most fertile potential field in the world. Living for centuries under dictatorships of various degrees of severity has established among native populations of the continent an active resentment of capitalist control.

It remains to be seen whether that resentment can be developed into action on a broad scale or whether the pervasive ignorance of the people who will be asked to support it will starve it for want of understanding. In this connection it is interesting to know that the temporary success of the radical movement in Chile is attributed to that country's industrial development. Communism takes hold most quickly among industrial groups, least quickly among agricultural groups.

Whatever may come of it, and no one can be sure, the strongest force in the world, social unrest, has been unleashed in Chile. It is more than that nation however that will be affected. Students of international movements know that South America is being flooded with the doctrine of communism. Even a partially successful program in Chile will give a tremendous impetus to fledgling movements elsewhere. Here is one frightening development in the new world that the Monroe doctrine will not be able to stop.

Ready for Anything.

It is fortunate that there is a tendency to entertain immoderate fears of hardships that lie ahead. Frequently the actual experience is a relief by contrast. Taxpayers may benefit by this tendency.

New federal tax rates and the hurly burly attendant upon passage of the revenue act have contributed to serious apprehension on the public's part. Most of the taxes go into effect June 21, the dreaded experience won't be delayed much longer.

In theory many of the taxes will be invisible, that is they will be paid in the first instance by the manufacturer, the producer and the importer. Actually of course the burden eventually will be unloaded on the ultimate consumer. He is ready for anything but it may be his happy experience to find reality falling short of his expectations because the blow given by a hidden tax doesn't hurt him half so much as one given in the open.

Strangely enough, now that the revenue bill has been enacted, predictions that the discarded manufacturers tax advocated as the easiest way to raise a vast sum with a minimum of pain will be offered again in the next session of congress are being made more freely than ever. Advocates of the tax believe that experience with a long list of excise taxes will rally support to their side. Opponents of the tax, particularly those opposed for reasons of expediency, will not be so anxious to maintain their position after the national election has passed into history.

Breaking World Records

Measure off 10 yards. Watch a second hand jump from one mark on the dial to another—one second. Realize what it means when a young man runs 100 yards in 9.5 seconds or 220 yards in 20.5 seconds. Every time the second hand of a watch moves he must cover 10 yards—30 feet—and the little bit extra that makes the difference between a good dash man and a sensationally good one.

Sport pages these days are crowded with descriptions of records being broken. Last week in the National Collegiate Athletic association track and field championship meet so many old records fell that one wonders what oldsters were distracted by when they made them. There were shattered records for the meet and shattered records for the competing athletes all piled in a heap and ranged neatly on top were five new world marks to shoot at.

How long can athletes continue to approach the limit of human speed and endurance without reaching it? And what is the limit? One hundred yards in 9.5 seconds looks good today but it wasn't long ago that the old 10-second mark represented the greatest achievement of the dash runner for the distance. Is there a schoolboy running somewhere who will be able to take another tenth of a second off all the dash records when he has practiced long enough? Will athletes of the track and field be able to go on improving indefinitely?

They think they will. The best that has been done by others is only a dare to their faith in their own strong legs and stout hearts. So they go right on breaking old records and establishing new ones. It's easy to believe that a country with so many young men like that somehow will be shamed out of believing that there's no use trying any more.

A Bad Record.

When members of the house of parliament begin to worry about the way police officers handle criminal cases on this side of the Atlantic Americans are obliged to admit that their reputation for bungling [illegible] jobs is traveling far afield. And when a sound old English paper the Manchester Guardian thunders [illegible] the [illegible] English [illegible] the Lindbergh kidnaping [illegible] the inadequacy of American [illegible] to the [illegible].

Police [illegible] public [illegible] the Guardian charges [illegible] the kind of treating the [illegible] clearly severe in methods of inter[illegible] should stand [illegible] in the [illegible] recent [illegible] in the United States. [illegible] probably is typical [illegible] the defendant to say?

Nothing in [illegible] it must be admitted [illegible] single case in [illegible] done more to show the [illegible] of the [illegible] helplessness of the [illegible] and the apathy of the [illegible] successful criminal practice [illegible] on the part of Americans to take critical comments from England to heart. [illegible] ultimate outcome of the [illegible] seems to have prompted an international [illegible] which has been in the making [illegible] the English should be made to realize plainly what they are doing when they [illegible] disparagingly on American [illegible].

The United States [illegible] with a heterogeneous population [illegible] a reasonably good job of it. England with a homogeneous population has no basis for [illegible]. Its strength lies in the unity of its people. Any criticisms which the English may make therefore necessarily are denied a basis of reality. Americans are willing to admit that they have come badly out of it—all of it and the Lindbergh case in particular. But while they proceed in their determination to make a better record in the future they will be politely but firmly insistent that the English refrain from talking too much about things of which they know but little and that only by hearsay.

Making Taxes Easier

Searching for ways of making taxes easier is commendable activity at any time and any place. Fruitless though the search may be it can always depend on strong potential support—potential because of the negative influence of a vast public doubt that anything will come of the project.

The Detroit bureau of governmental research nevertheless seems to have hit upon a likely clue. It leads first to banks, then to the office of the public treasurer. It points to an installment plan for paying taxes, borrowing an idea which has played an important part in the conduct of business these recent years.

Instead of advising collection of lump sums of cash at taxpaying time the Detroit plan suggests the advisability of dividing the sum into 50 parts to be paid during 50 consecutive weeks preceding collection time. Payment should be handled through banks in much the same way as payments are handled in Christmas savings clubs now.

Business long ago discovered the magic of easy payments. Money comes easier when the necessity for making it come in lump sums is eliminated. Units of government which have been having bitter experiences trying to squeeze the life giving substance of revenue from taxpayers who have been pressed dry by the hard pinch of depression can not afford to ignore a suggestion which might make tax collecting a more orderly business.

Comment of the Press

DECENCY AND THE CIRCUS

When Massachusetts mayors refuse to tolerate the exhibition of the man who found the body of the Lindbergh baby they are following a sound public policy. There can be no reasonable excuse for the exploitation of this man who by accident solved the mystery of the fate of the child. His appearance doubtless makes appeal to ignorant and unthinking lovers of the sensational and the sordid. Otherwise he would not have become one of the attractions of a circus. But no argument is needed to demonstrate to thinking persons that here is an exhibition to be classed with others which are forbidden as contrary to decency. Mayors who seek to prevent such a performance act in accordance with intelligent and statutory sentiment in their cities.

Incidentally such officials are doing a good turn for that American institution the circus. As it is kept free from objectionable performances it [illegible] wholesome amusement. It is not enough that the giant shows which exhibit only in the largest cities should be maintained at a high [illegible] the smaller circuses have their place. They provide entertainment for many who cannot attend the performances under the biggest of the big tops [illegible] such great indoor gathering places as the Boston Garden. In the long run these smaller [illegible] will benefit as they are guided by the [illegible] decent and self-respecting people [illegible] exhibitions in the [illegible] as well as [illegible] performances in the main tent. [illegible] folk as well as other people are [illegible] the Massachusetts mayors who [illegible] the exploitation of a man [illegible] notion is based upon [illegible] with a tragedy which [illegible] world. Daily Guide to Health

Neglect Invites Attack of Tuberculosis

Most individuals dread the words consumption and tuberculosis, fearing tuberculosis might afflict them, yet these same persons neglect and abuse their health without realizing that they are lowering their resistance to this disease.

Tremendous strides have been made in our understanding of tuberculosis and it is now possible to check its spread as well as to treat effectively the individual case.

This year marks the fiftieth anniversary of Koch's discovery of the tubercle bacillus—the germ of consumption. Since that important discovery the means of recognition and treatment of tuberculosis have undergone complete revision.

Yet in spite of these great advances this dreaded disease continues to be the leading cause of death in both men and women up to the age of thirty-five. I believe this is not because tuberculosis is more virulent but because young people neglect their health.

The danger of tuberculosis is great and emphasis must be placed upon the importance of maintaining strong and healthy bodies. Undernourishment, overwork, lack of rest and sleep are dangers to be avoided.

Bear in mind that most tuberculosis occurs in childhood and that everyone at some time or other has been infected with the germs of tuberculosis before the age of twenty-one. A healthy body successfully combats the germs and prevents spread of the disease. Only when there are an excessive number of germs in the body or when the resistance of the body is low does tuberculosis spread to the lungs or other organs.

Guard Your Health

It is not surprising to me that most of us fear tuberculosis but it is amazing that so many people who are familiar with the value of fresh air and sunshine, nourishing food, rest and abundant sleep [illegible] overlook these simple health measures.

A campaign against tuberculosis is now being waged. War is to be declared in fact not only against this disease but all disease that can be prevented and that will cripple the nation. This war can be waged successfully only with your cooperation.

If you have good health guard it. If you have any physical complaint do not neglect it but consult with your physician.

Periodic health examinations often reveal early and unsuspected signs of tuberculosis and when recognized in its early stages it can be entirely cured. When neglected and allowed to reach an advanced stage a cure cannot be expected.

The Marry-Go-Round

EVERYBODY NEEDS A FRIEND

Everybody needs a friend.

We are always meeting people, going places, doing something, seeing new faces, making new contacts. Yet under all our gaiety and merriment the great tragedy of life is loneliness.

You have so many charming acquaintances, so many delightful neighbors, so many amusing clubs and associations. You are so popular.

But—have you a friend? Count them. You will need only a few fingers!

There are just three essential things, three vital requirements, which go to the making of a friend.

First, that he (or she) be honestly fond of you.

Second, that he be loyal.

Third, that he never bore you.

Only three requirements. Yet if you find one friend who meets all these, cleave unto him with all your heart and with all your charity. For you have found life's rarest prize.

The loneliest people on earth are the great, the famous and the successful.

When you are down and out you are surprised to discover how many good friends you have. Hosts of people whom you never suspected of such generosity will rush to your rescue with sympathy and aid. But alas how few you will find to rejoice with you when you are on the up and up.

The world is in [illegible] impulsively kind. All of [illegible] to play Good Samaritan [illegible] and Lord or Lady Bountiful to a friend who is in [illegible] or who needs a helping hand [illegible] a few dollars. It makes [illegible] so pleased with ourselves.

But oh how hard it is for [illegible] of us, for most people in fact, [illegible] be honestly glad at heart [illegible] the other fellow is winning. It is so hard for your friends to forgive you your good luck, your [illegible] your popularity.

Your best friend is your most enthusiastic cheer leader. Your truest friend is your greatest press agent!

He starts the chorus of [illegible] and drowns out the [illegible] chorus. He is the one who [illegible] up your spirits and gives you [illegible] in private and sings your praise [illegible] or defends you in public. He [illegible] you courage to go on and [illegible] leads the applause. And [illegible] you win and the cheering is [illegible] ringing in your ears he is [illegible] thrilled—and glad.

When a husband and wife are friends first—and lovers afterward—they are the happiest people in the world. For what [illegible] love but a glorified friendship sprinkled with a little stardust?

JUDGE RULES AGAINST BOARD

Marion Man Member of State Group That Loses in Injunction Suit.

Ohio optometrists have the right to engage in business with department stores and to advertise their wares Common Pleas Judge John R King ruled today in Columbus according to an Associated Press dispatch.

This ruling was made when the court overruled a demurrer of the state optometry board of which Dr F A Stengel of Marion is a member to a petition for injunction filed by a score of optometrists.

The suit resulted from a rule adopted by the state board several months ago prohibiting optometrists from practicing in department stores or from advertising the prices of their wares.

Concerning the optometry board ruling against advertising Judge King is quoted in press dispatch this morning as stating that "any regulation by the general assembly or an administrative board in the conduct of one's business or his right to earn a living which does not directly relate to the public safety health or morals is arbitrary and unreasonable and unenforceable.

In regard to the right of an optometrist to engage in business with a firm or corporation the Judge said "What difference does it make so far as the health safety and physical welfare of the people are concerned in the adjustment of eye glasses whether they go to a department store or to a room occupied by an individual so long as such optometrical work is performed by an individual competent and qualified under the law to perform such services.

"Honest advertising of any product is to be encouraged not condemned or prohibited Judge King said "It enables the honest tradesman to establish himself and his business and insure to the public the best product at the lowest price."

newspapermen at the hotel where he lives saying when he was "ready to make a statement" he would telephone it.

Curtis Followers Worried

The situation was causing Curtis adherents much uneasiness. The opposition to him has proved as stubborn as a glass fire. Reiteration by administration men that they were for the veteran Indian politician has not stamped it out.

The Texas delegation has obtained from Arkansas the right to put Dawes' name before the convention if Illinois—where there is strong sentiment for him—does not do it.

Then Iowa would like to see it "Hoover and Dawes." Many from Missouri, Connecticut, New Mexico, Minnesota and other states have let it be known they feel the same way.

It is not unlikely that they will find themselves an army without a general before it is over. There remains the possibility, however they will go in search of another and more willing leader and find him.

Most of the male delegates have been and still are talking prohibition but the appearance at the convention of Dolly Gann Curtis' sister, and Alice Roosevelt Longworth has turned the attention of many of the women to the vice presidential situation.

Mrs Gann is frankly doing what she can to get her brother renominated. Mrs Longworth has said nothing but she is credited in some quarters with astute moves to send Curtis back to private life.

The background of course is the much talked about differences over social precedence between the two women while the late Nick Longworth was speaker of the house.

brance of members of the order who have died during the last year. Thomas J Pendergast of Cleveland, past great incohonee and Pert Parker of Antwerp, former great junior sagamore, were particularly honored. Other memorials were read for 76 past sachems who have died within the year.

The grand council defeated a proposal to hold the annual sessions in May instead of June.

The council adjourned at noon.

Fred Leslie of Toledo was elected great senior sagamore, second ranking officer of the order by the Improved Order of Red Men in their great council session yesterday in the Red Men hall.

Leslie was to be installed with other officers of the order today. He will fill the vacancy caused by the death of Pert Parker of Antwerp.

Morris V Clevenger of Columbus was elected great junior sagamore to succeed Leslie. He also will be installed today.

Trustee Elected

Richard Haines of Hamilton was elected a great trustee to take the place of Daniel Greathouse of Ironton.

Herbert Metzer of Philadelphia Pa, great chief of records for the national order addressed the Red Men yesterday. Scheduled for an address on the reception program Monday night he failed to arrive in Marion in time to keep his appointment to speak.

Fraternalism and the accomplishments of fraternal orders will have an influential part in the economic recovery of the country he said.

A delegation from the Degree of Pocahontas visited the Red Men session to extend greetings in behalf of the auxiliary.

One hundred persons headed by the Eagles band paraded through the business section last night at 7. Feathered headgear and other colorful Indian attire was worn by some of the marchers.

Party Record Recalled

"Call the roll of Presidents from Lincoln to Hoover. The illustrious names of Republican presidents are an epitome of the history of the United States.

In Lincoln's day the people stood loyally by their President who brought them out of the shadow of disunion. In Hoover's day the people stand loyally by their President who is bringing the country out of the shadow of vast economic adversity.

No man living or dead has had to grapple with such gigantic problems at home and abroad.

No man living or dead has fought world wide economic adversity with so stout a heart and so deep an understanding.

We hold that a protective tariff is necessary for the common defense. The Democratic party refuses to provide this protection although I could name Democrats by the score who eagerly seek such protection on the sly for their own states and districts while denying it to the nation at large.

The tariff was revised by the Republican party just in time to avert a catastrophe. This tariff law has been the bulwark of the common defense against world wide depression. But for that law the United States would have been inundated with foreign imports and vast additional numbers of our workers would have been unemployed.

The enemy was described by Snell as the ghastly pestilence of world wide depression and Mr Hoover was termed well prepared for the task of combatting it.

"Yet look with record" Snell said. "You know the battles he had already won.

He mobilized labor and capital against the enemy.

He avoided the deadly pit of the dole.

Striking Points from Speech of Chairman Snell

By the Associated Press

CHICAGO June 15 — Here are some striking expressions from the speech made by Representative Bertrand H Snell of New York permanent chairman of the Republican national convention.

Victory has come to the Republican party because victory has been earned.

We have never become a disorganized mob under the pressure of great emergencies.

The nation has been safe when the Republican party has been in control of the government.

Everywhere outside of the Republican party is confusion and chaos.

The Democratic party is fatally weak because it does not command the support or confidence of the nation and because it is utterly lacking in team work.

The Democrats have a minority complex which they can not change. As a fault finding cavilling minority opposition they are 100 per cent perfect. As a driving constructive majority they are a 100 per cent failure.

With this record behind it in this grave hour of national distress the Democratic party is about to ask the country to accept a candidate whose identity is still unknown standing upon a platform whose planks will probably contradict themselves.

The people will not strike down the pilot who keeps eternal vigil on the bridge of the ship of state. Herbert Hoover courageously and determinedly has kept this vigil for three years.

Herbert Hoover the engineer President of the United States is solving and will solve stupendous and vexatious problems as did our first engineer President (Washington) for the benefit of all mankind.

The one man who today stands head and shoulders above any leaders among the nations of the world is the Republican President of the United States Herbert Hoover.

resubmission of the prohibition controversy to the states.

The Pennsylvania plank was the basis of the compromise formula accepted by the sub-committee.

This declaration called for prompt resubmission of the prohibition question by congress to the states and demanded a substitute giving congress control to regulate the manufacture, sale and transportation of liquor.

The declaration also deplored the constant agitation over prohibition on the ground that it distracted attention from the constructive solution of pressing economic problems.

justice and generosity to all regardless of race or creed."

Credentials Report Given

Without a pause Albert W Jefferies of Omaha, chairman of the credentials committee, a big man with a big voice, began to read his report.

The report seated the Hambright delegation from South Carolina, the Howard delegation from Mississippi, the Arnold Posey faction from Georgia and the Jake Jackson group from Louisiana.

The action taken without a murmur of protest from convention marked an almost complete victory for the Hoover forces who for years have been endeavoring to purge certain southern party organizations of what they regard as undesirable elements.

Tireless Joe Tolbert national committeeman from South Carolina for more than 20 years fell under the convention axe when the delegation headed by Hambright was seated. Tolbert was opposed by the administration.

In another case involving the husbanding of patronage Perry Howard veteran Negro national committeeman from Mississippi won seats for his delegation over an all white group led by Lamont Rowlands who has been dispensing federal patronage there. The administration has backed Rowlands group.

Adopted by Acclamation

The report was adopted by acclamation. Retiring Chairman Dickinson appointed three men to escort Snell to the chair.

Snell also got a hand when he launched into the manuscript of his speech. He sounded a bit hoarse but he had no difficulty making them hear. He took it slowly and the delegates and galleries liked his deliberate delivery and pounding gestures. They cheered him several times when he talked of past and hoped for Republican victories and praised President Hoover.

As it assembled for its second session the convention left behind in hotel conference rooms a large and weary battalion of delegates.

All Night Task

Some had struggled through the night to settle long-pending controversies over southern party leadership. Some had been in conference with little to show for it over the vice presidency.

The platform committee whose most difficult task it is to report a prohibition plank had been at work continuously since early evening listening at first to the militant pleas of wets and drys at a public hearing and then to the disagreements of its own members.

Before a sub-committee retired to begin writing the platform there was the unusual spectacle of members of the whole committee telling it what they thought should be done.

Talk of defections from the renomination candidacy of Vice President Curtis continued but the developments were not very convincing on any score.

Meantime a dozen prospective aspirants were flying kites and there appeared a possibility that even if Dawes would decline Curtis still might come out the loser when the nomination is made tomorrow or Friday.

A great deal may depend on what is done about the prohibition plank. Curtis has been a staunch dry and if the repealists come out of tonight's convention battle disappointed and deeply hurt the party strategists may think it best to make a concession of some place on the ticket. The prohibition struggle promises to be one of the most bitter in any recent convention and when it is over a good deal of thought will be given to tieing up the wounds.

PLAYERS UNEASY AS PILOTS CUT SQUADS

Yanks Release Saltzgaver but Retain 10 Hurlers Robins Drop Thompson

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK June 15 — Many players unable to win a regular place in the lineup this spring occupied an uneasy seat today as managers pruned their rosters to the big league limit of 23 players effective at midnight.

Several clubs already were down to the minimum but others had put off the task until the last minute in hopes of making an advantageous sale or trade.

The New York Yankees already down to the limit through the release of Jack Saltzgaver to Newark present the most unusual roster in either league. Manager Joe McCarthy has decided to carry 10 pitchers in his fight for the American league flag. The Philadelphia Athletics on the other hand will attempt to win with only seven hurlers.

Brooklyn finally got down to the limit yesterday through the disposal of Fresco Thompson, Bruce Caldwell and Paul Richards. Only Richards was sold outright, the other being sent out on option.

The Giants cleared decks by sending Pitcher Roy Parmelee to Indianapolis on option and turning over Eddie Marshall to Montreal.

The outright release of Cliff Heathcote, veteran outfielder, placed the Cincinnati Reds within the limit while the St. Louis Cardinals sent outfielder Ray Pepper back to Rochester and the Chicago White Sox shipped Jack Rothrock, another outfielder, to Toronto. The Detroit Tigers pared a man off their payroll when they traded Dale Alexander and Roy Johnson to Boston for outfielder Earl Webb.

STALENESS IS ONLY SCHMELING WORRY

By The Associated Press

KINGSTON N Y June 15—The only thing that seems to worry phlegmatic Max Schmeling as he prepares for his heavyweight title defense against Jack Sharkey is the danger of going stale.

The German did all his training on a golf course yesterday and planned no work today. Pop Foster, manager of Jimmy McLarnin, was among the visitors, a bit put out because he came on a day on which Schmeling elected to take a vacation.

Der Maxie will return to work Thursday, will rest again Friday and will wind up his preparations with workouts Saturday and Sunday.

Trinity Trips Lee Street 4-3 in 10-Inning Conflict; Calvary Cops 7-5 Game

By BOB KIRKPATRICK
Sports Editor, The Star

The [illegible] Presbyterians softball combination crashed into the van position of the No 1 Sunday school league yesterday by squeezing out a 2-1 victory over the Epworth Bishops before a crowd of approximately 400 persons at the Steam Shovel athletic field. The victory gives the Presbyterians a half game edge on the Bishops, both teams having won four games while the Bishops have dropped two to one for the Presbies.

St. Mary lost a chance to go into a tie for the top post with the Presbyterians when John Clark's No. 1 Epworth M. E. team pounded out of a chance to move up a notch. Trinity Baptist booted Lee street out of a chance to move up a notch in the standings by taking a 4-3 decision in an extra inning conflict. Calvary escaped a share in the cellar position by taking a close 7-5 game from the tail end Lutherans.

HOW THEY STAND

S. S. League No. 1

	W.	L.	Pct
Presbyterians	4	1	800
Epworth Bishops	4	2	66[illegible]
St Marys	3	2	600
Lee Street	3	[illegible]	600
Trinity Baptist	3	3	500
Epworth No 1	2	3	400
Calvary	2	4	[illegible]
Lutherans	0	6	000

The Bishops-Presbyterian game was a thriller from start to finish. Eddie Mautz and Don Shoemaker did the twirling. Mautz displayed a tendency to be wild until men got on the bases and then he set the Presbies down with almost monotonous regularity. Not until the sixth frame did a Presbyterian hoof dent home plate and then two men crossed on a Texas league single to left field. Those two runs erased a one-run Bishop lead and turned defeat into victory for the Presbies. The Bishops put the tying run on third base in the seventh but couldn't push it across the platter.

Mautz and Shoemaker were both stingy with their hits, each allowing three. Mautz walked four men and Shoemaker gave one free ticket. Shoemaker struck out five and Mautz whiffed the same number. Mautz was almost untouchable after he had placed men on the base paths.

The Bishops counted first in the fourth inning. Hinamon reached first on Bacon's overthrow, went to second when Shoemaker walked Hinklin and raced all the way home when Leffler drove a liner to center field. The Presbyterians chased both their tallies across the plate in the sixth frame. Bush, batting for Cunningham, smacked out a single. Pohler reached first on an error and Bush was safe at second. Minard drew a walk and filled the sacks. Conroy dropped a Texas league single into left field and both Pohler and Bush crossed the plate. That ended the scoring for both teams and gave the game to the Presbies.

Irish Tripped

John Clark caught Gene Gunder and the St. Mary Irish on a bad afternoon yesterday and proceeded to take advantage of the fact by hammering out a 5-2 victory over the 1931 league champions.

Bob Gamble, Clark's ace hurler, was generous with free passes, issuing five free tickets, but the Irish failed to make much of their scoring opportunities. The Clarkmen jumped on Gunder for eight hits in the seven frames while Gamble was being touched for six in the same period. Irish errors allowed the Methodists to rack up several of their tallies.

Trinity Baptist and Lee Street Presbyterian battled through 10 innings of warfare before the Baptists finally shoved over a single counter to grab a 4-3 decision and boost their season's average to the 500 per cent mark for the first time of the year. Hap Applegett and Shorty Richards staged a pitching duel all the way, Richards giving up nine hits in the 10 innings while Applegett was holding the losers to one less. Both kept the hits well scattered and had it not been for a Lee Street error in the tenth frame after Walt Merchant had singled the game would probably have ended in a deadlock. Merchant romped all the way from first to home with the winning tally on the misplay.

Both teams displayed ability to place men on the sacks but neither was able to penetrate the opponent's defense with any degree of success when these men were lodged on the bags.

Calvary Victor

The Calvary Evangelical nine escaped being shoved into a deadlock for last place with the Lutherans by beating the Lutherans 7-5. Art Roof, Calvary's rookie twirler, did the pitching for five frames but was removed in favor of Messenger after the Lutherans had gone on a five-run spree in the fifth and threatened to upset the Calvary nine for the fifth time of the season. Messenger throttled the rally in the final two innings without so much as a single. Calvary banged out a total of 12 hits off the offerings of Bob Foltz, pitching his first game for the Lutherans, while Roof was nicked for five hits in his five inning stay on the mound. He had pitched no-hit ball until the fifth frame when all five blows were [illegible] by the losers.

VETERANS PROVIDING PUNCHES AS YANKEES FIGHT FOR PENNANT

Cleveland Tripped by Leaders 7-6, Senators Battered by St. Louis 17-3

By The Associated Press

The Yankees plowing through the west and building up an imposing lead in the American league owe very little of their success to the costly lot of new talent turned over to Manager Joe McCarthy this spring.

Gone are Jack Saltzgaver and Frank Crosetti, expensive young stars, and in their places are Joe Sewell and Tony Lazzeri, veterans who have proved their worth.

Earle Combs is back at his old outfield post.

All three played steady ball yesterday to help the leaders make it three out of four from Cleveland 7 to 6 and give Danny MacFayden his first victory in a Yankee uniform.

A triple steal gave the Yanks the winning run in the seventh.

The Athletics made it three out of four over Detroit 10 to 5 and kept pace with the leaders as Jimmie Foxx smacked his twenty fourth and twenty fifth homers of the year. As Washington was dropping another to St Louis the victory boosted the Mackmen into a tie for second place.

George Blaeholder tamed the Senators most of the way while his mates knocked young Monte Weaver from the box and treated his successors roughly to win 17-3.

The Boston Red Sox beat Ted Lyons and the Chicago White Sox 5 to 4 in 11 innings.

Philadelphia and Cincinnati supplied all the action in the National league by dividing a doubleheader. The Phillies captured the first 6 to 5 when they got to Owen Carroll for five hits and scored three times after two were out in the ninth but the Reds came back behind John Ogden's steady pitching to take the nightcap 5 to 2.
